BOOST YOUR SKILLS

FOR A POST-COVID
JOB MARKET & COME BACK
STRONGER THAN EVER

BE IN THE KNOW

I can't do training right now because I'm not comfortable going into a classroom.

Most training is being provided virtually.

It doesn't fit in with my weekday schedule right now.

Many training programs offer
evening and weekend hours.

I want to keep collecting unemployment so I can't do job training.

You can continue to collect your unemployment while training
for your next job.

I'm on temporary layoff so I will probably get called back

You should still consider training to boost your skills & increase the chances you get called back.
